

Tree Hugging Song

By Joe Reilly with words from The People Who Hugged The Trees, adapted by Deborah Lee Rose.

Chorus

D///                    G/            D/            D///        A/    D/
You are so tall your leaves are so green how could we live without you?
D///                    G/            D/            D///        A/    D/
You are so tall your leaves are so green how could we live without you?

Verse 1

D///   G/    D/        D///   G/    D/
Trees give us shade and trees give us air
D///        G/    D/    D///   A/    D/
to breathe We are one family we are all related

Chorus

D///                    G/            D/            D///        A/    D/
You are so tall your leaves are so green how could we live without you?
D///                    G/            D/            D///        A/    D/
You are so tall your leaves are so green how could we live without you?

Verse 2

D///   G/    D/        D///   A/    D/
I will hug the trees and they will protect me
D///   G/    D/        D///        A/    D/
I will protect the trees and they will shelter me

Chorus

D///                    G/            D/            D///        A/    D/
You are so tall your leaves are so green how could we live without you?
D///                    G/            D/            D///        A/    D/
You are so tall your leaves are so green how could we live without you?